PLANS MADE

TO INSURE FINANCIAL SUCCESS OF "RIVALS"

First steps to insure the financial success of the Masque Society's production of "The Rivals" were made at the meeting of the organization, when committees were formed to distribute tickets. Four performances are planned, two matinees at the Memorial Hall and two evening performances at the Odeon.

It was assured at the meeting that all members of the organization will be able to assist in some way in staging the comedy. Besides the cast of fifteen, a stage crew of twenty, a large house staff will be required. Included in the cast are: Raymond Daley, '28; James Quill, '28; Walter Ryan, '27; Morse Conroy, '28; William Wise, '30.

Female parts will be taken by Martha Metz, Bertha Gossman and Mary Switalski.

RECOVERING

Frank Swann and Brod Sullivan, two of Xavier's sturdy footballers are resting nicely at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Swann was seriously ill with blood poisoning; Sullivan injured his knee on the Friday preceding the Marine game.

Louisville Cardinals Were Reluctant Towards First Defeat In Eleven Games

BOTH TEAMS

REALIZE THEY WERE IN A FOOTBALL GAME

Yep! they've gone and done it again! Coach Joe Meyer's Musketeers continued, or rather extended their winning streak to four games last Saturday, when they smothered the highly-touted Louisville University eleven. The final score, 20-7, is but fairly representative of the way the Xaverians outclassed the "Cardinals." At the same time the final count is not at all representative of the bitter way in which the game was contested. Both teams fought valiantly for the palm of victory, and the Musketeers could not put over a single point in the first half, in spite of the fact that they made four first downs to every one for Tom King's eleven.

The "Cardinals" had won eleven straight victories and had not been sent home on the short end of the score since 1924, but they found the Musketeers an unbeatable combination, against whom they could not keep their record unstained. Above all this, the Falls City boys had kept their goal uncrossed for all those eleven games except for three safeties, but Saturday they were rudely initiated in the art of trying to stop the rushes of the St. Xavier backfield, when near their own goal line.

It is really quite a feather in the cap of Musketeers for the decisive manner in which they repelled the invasion of the "Cardinals", a feather almost as large as the palm they were handed for the drubbing handed the Marines. The Xaverians now have passed over two of their toughest contests on their schedule in spectacular fashion.

KENYON

WILL BRING STRONG TEAM TO BATTLE MUSKETEERS

Coach Joe Meyer's Musketeer football squad has been working diligently during the past week in preparation for their only Ohio Conference game of the season to be played Saturday with Kenyon College. This contest marks the third annual meeting of the two schools, in which St. Xavier has the edge. In 1924 the game ended in a 7-7 tie, while last season the Musketeers triumphed over the "Purple" by a score of 6-0.

Kenyon comes to Corcoran Field this year with practically the same squad that faced the Musketeers in 1925. They are headed by one of the best ends in the State in Van Epps, who was given a place last season on the all-Ohio eleven. In addition to him they have a wealth of heady gridders, which has been moulded into one of the best organized elevens of the state. The "Purple" line-up has been given a severe shaking down in the past week, due to their defeat in their first game of the year with Dayton University. However, they are now fully prepared to try to even the count of last season, and obtain revenge on the Musketeers.

The game, as usual, will be called at 2:30 at Corcoran Field.

ERRORS

In the issuing of the Xaverian News of October 13th, we regret the appearance of several errors. The statue collection, printed $5,700 was $57.00 and for the misspelled names we beg pardon.

ACCOUNTING

ATTRACTS ABOUT THIRTY AT OPENING CLASS

Stanley Hitner, B. S. C., C. P. A., to Conduct Class.

Last Saturday morning about 30 students were present for the first class in the new accounting course. The class is held from 8:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m.

Mr. Stanley Hitner, B. S. C., C. P. A., of the Accounting firm of Crane and Hitner is the Professor in this department. Mr. Hitner is well-known in Cincinnati accounting circles and thus the students are assured of receiving a practical knowledge of this subject.

It is the desire of the college authorities to add to this course each year until the department is qualified to confer the Bachelor of Commercial Science degree at the end of four years.

NEW STENOGRAPHIC COURSE

Another new feature was inaugurated also Saturday morning, when the new Stenographic Course was opened at St. Xavier Parochial School, on Sycamore St. This, which includes typewriting and shorthand is taught by Brother Henry, S. M.

No credit is offered for this course which is held from 9:30 to 11:30.

The need for such a course for the college students was recognized by Rev. Francis J. Finn, S. J., who is a trustee of the college and also the Principal of the St. Xavier Parochial School. Consequently Father Finn made his offer to the college authorities and it was eagerly accepted.

Due to Father Finn's generosity all the apparatus of the commercial department has been placed at the disposal of the college students and the authorities are enabled to offer the course for a very slight tuition fee. Many students have enrolled.

DANTE CLUB

REVIEWS MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

The Dante Club at its regular meeting, on Friday, October 15th, completed the rules and constitution, which it had in the process of formation. These deal with the requirements for membership and the activities of the club.

A schedule of lectures is being arranged and a new lecture is being written. The members look forward to a season filled with engagements, Eugene Perazzo, President of the club said. The personnel of the club includes: Edward McGrath, '28; William Dammarell, '28; Robert Williams, '29; Louis S. Keller, '29; Morse Conroy, '29.

ALUMNUS MARRIES

The marriage of Mr. Edward Dorr, LL. B., '22 and Miss Angela Kenkle was solemnized at St. Boniface Church, on October 12th. They were attended by a brother of the groom, Mr. Richard Dorr, '30, and a sister of the bride, Miss Louise Kenkle.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Schwartz. Mr. Geo. Maggini, '22 and Mr. Bernard Grause, '21 served as ushers.

Mr. Dorr is associated with Paul V. Connolly and other lawyers in the First National Bank Building.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS REVEAL GOOD GENERAL HEALTH AT ST. XAVIER

Upper classmen were examined last week by Dr. Wuest, Professor of Biology, who is in charge of nutrition work at the college. Students who have ailments are advised to have medical attention and others are advised to diet.

These examinations differ from the nutrition feature of last year inasmuch as they are more thorough and will be regularly checked up.

TRY-OUTS HELD

FOR GLEE CLUB

Preparations for a new college activity started last week, when try-outs for the College Glee Club were held on Wednesday, October 13. An invitation was extended to all the undergraduates of the college to attend this meeting. About fifty students responded. Practice was held in the old Library Building, where all future practices will be held. Plenty of enthusiasm was displayed at the try-outs.

The direction of the Glee Club is entrusted to Professor David Davis, well known in musical circles of the city. He expressed his encouragement as a result of the number of excellent voices.

Rev. John F. Walsh, S. J., and Mr. John Mussio, faculty managers of the Glee Club plan to give concerts in this city. If these performances are successful the club might give additional performances in near-by cities. The successful candidates will be chosen by Professor David Davis.

STATUE COLLECTION

The total collection received up to Friday, October 15, for the St. Aloysius Statue Fund amounted to $80.00.

ALUMNUS

DO YOU READ?

We are now about to offer a suggestion, which is indeed one of the best, which will come from our humble pens this season. It does not pertain to the number of books, novels and trashy playlets, which pour into the ordinary student mind during the ordinary school term. Nor does it refer to our efforts, made to look a bit likely in print, in this paper. No, we here refer to our staunchest friends, our advertisers.

By the way, now that we are on that subject, do you ever read the ads that appear in the Xavierian News? Or, if you happen to be purchasing some article at one of the stores, which advertise with us, do you ever mention the Xavierian News? If you haven't in the past, we hope that you will mention the News in the future. This is why we ask your favor in this regard.

All college papers, especially newspapers are forced to rely almost solely on advertisements for their publication fund. We are no different but, the Xavierian News, still in its infancy as a weekly paper, cannot compete with other, strong college weeklies, without steady and large advertising receipts; on the other hand, the small circulation of the News, compared to other college weekly papers, hampers it, keeps it small and will continue to hold it down, unless we can convince our advertisers that ads in our paper bring results.

We know you are behind us and we appreciate the fine student spirit of encouragement shown in the past in our regard, but we ask your help in just this one more cause; mention the News when purchasing at one of our advertisers. C. R. S.

VICTORY OVER CARDINALS BRINGS MUSKETEER POINT TOTAL TO 157 IN FOUR GAMES

ular fashion, and are well on the road to the most successful season in the history of football at St. Xavier College.

Neither team could muster sufficient strength in the first half to put the ball over, although the Musketeers were repeatedly in a position to score, and the Louisville boys had a chance at least once. The Xavierians simply could not get the breaks, while the "Cardinals" seemed to be running in extremely good fortune. Beatty, Burns, Daugherty and Kelly carried and passed the ball deep into Louisville territory time and time again only to lose it at the critical moment. Burns made a run of thirty-five yards for a touchdown in the first half only to be called back for stepping out of bounds on the twelve yard line.

In the third period the Musketeers came into their own and hung up fourteen points before the Falls City team could realize just what had happened. Wenzel returned the kick-off thirty yards, after which Kelly made a first down on a line plunge, and Beatty another on an end run. Eddie Burns then shot off tackle, and freeing himself from several tacklers, he raced forty yards for the first score of the game. "Gooter" Wenzel promptly added the extra point with a place kick. Kelly, Burns and Beatty started off again with a dazzling attack, both versatile and varied. They showered the visitors with line bucks, end runs and an occasional forward pass. They showered the visitors with line bucks, end runs and an occasional forward pass. This time "Pude" Beatty carried the pigskin over the line, and Wenzel again made a successful try for the extra point.

In the last quarter Joe Kelly was on the receiving end of a beautiful pass of thirty yards, and he easily galloped over for Xavier's third and last touchdown. This time, however, Wenzel's kick was a little wide of the goal posts. Tom King's eleven netted their sole marker late in the last period when they uncorked a dazzling passing attack. In four tries they succeeded in completing three passes and making their touchdown.

The entire Musketeer team played their usual heady game, and it is difficult to say that anyone was out there by himself. Beatty, Kelly, Burns and Daugherty put up a magnificent exhibition of football, as did Tommy Clines, who succeeded Daugherty at Quarterback. Captain "Hub" Rapp again gave evidence to the sport critics that he must be considered when they select their all-Ohio and all-Western teams. He was in every play, either tearing holes in the opposition or presenting himself as a bulwark on the defense. Wenzel, Tehan, Scheibert, Schmidt, Gosiger and McGrath also played mighty well, stopping the "Cardinals" time and time again.

For Louisville Koster and Captain Daugherty looked best.

Warmth and Wear in Patrick Mackinaws

Children need the daily outdoor air. They will like cold weather, too, when snuggled in a warm and roomy Patrick mackinaw.

The cozy comfort and protection against the cold and wind and snow make these coats their best outdoor, winter friends.

Patrick mackinaws have style and fit and large storm collars, but it's the wonderful all-wool cloth and splendid tailoring that give them their warmth and long, hard wear.

Bring the children in and let us show you how well we can fit them out for winter weather.

It will be a pleasure to show them even if you are not ready to buy.

ST. XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL OPENING GRID CONTEST SCHEDULED FOR THIS WEEK

SQUAD ANXIOUS

XAVIER MEETS NEWPORT THIS FRIDAY

Andrews Field To Be Scene of Battle

Coach Savage's light but fast and intelligent squad will line up at Andrews Field this Friday for the first clash of the season. Bob Egbers, sturdy captain-end, hopes that there will be a large representation of students there to cheer up the team with their mighty yells when the pigskin sails into air at the kickoff. The team is very modest, to be sure, but if you corner them they will admit that they are set to fight and bring back a great victory.

As we go to press, the initial lineup is still uncertain. It is very possible that Andy Schmidt, whom we forgot to mention in last week's report of the line, may start at guard. Other members of the team are:

Backfield—Mairese, Insko, Foley, Wahlfrim, Scanlon, Brand, E. Murphy, Thornbury, Burke and Bernard.

End—Egbers, Bill Earls, Leo Smith and Richmond.

Tackle—Mercurio, Puttman, Mersch, and Ranier.

Guard—Shields, Bob Schmidt, Walters, Hosty and Schutte.

Center—Hope and Moellering.

CAPTAIN BOB

In all organizations the leader is generally one who by his merits and hard work has forced himself into the lime-light. So it is with our football team. Bob Egbers, captain-elect for '26, is playing his third year of high school football at left end, and has played basketball for two years. Bob's professors will tell you that he is a good student and a hard worker. His good nature and the active part he takes in all school activities mark him as one of the most popular students in the school.

Every day, after school, Bob is the first one dressed for practice, and on the field he is always active. Bob is out to make this football season a red-letter chapter in the newly proposed X High annual. However, various handicaps have arisen which threaten to ruin our pig-skin hopes.

Let's get behind Captain Bob and boost our "26 pig-skin warriors." A turnout of the entire student body at our first game is a way to boost.—Will Scanlon.

MISSION

The foreign mission cause is surely the worthiest one to which we can contribute. A collection for this cause is taken up among the high school students weekly and heretofore a high average has been kept up in the various classes.

Our principal, in a talk on this subject, told the students to make the contributions their own by performing some small act of self-denial to save the amount of the donation.—L. Feldhaus.

ACOLYTES MEET

The first Acolytical Society meeting will be held Thursday, October 21st, at 2:30 p. m. in Moeller Hall. The society this year will function as a section of the sodality. The following have already joined: W. Earls, W. Ranier, P. Fredwest, W. Scanlon, S. Grause, R. Egbers, P. Hilbert, E. Brueggemann, J. Meade, B. Felix, A. Radina, P. Overbeck, H. Foley, A. Sansone, R. Kamphaus, C. Kelsch, J. Knab, P. Janson, V. Spellmeier, A. Piepmeyer, R. Steuer, P. Vigna and R. Berry. If any names have been omitted or if others care to become members, please see Mr. J. E. Reardon, S. J. Serving appointments will always be published on the bulletin board and a list will be posted in the sacristy. Let us all do our share by attending the meeting and thereby make the society a success.—Edw. Brueggemann.

CHOIR LEADS HYMNS

On Monday, October 18th, the candidates for the student choir presented themselves to Mr. Bernard J. Wuelner, S. J. They were: Johnnie Kemme, Augustine Moorman, John Anton, John Hamilton, Albert Duschinski, John Ingerman, Robert Kearney, John Cronin, Francis Sehnge, Charles Kenny, Arthur MacKenna, Edward Brueggemann, Joseph O'Sullivan, James Beck and Thomas Insko.

A light drill on the hymns which the candidates are quite familiar with was indulged in.

There are some sopranos in first year who have not been selected as yet.

This choir is in keeping with the new program at Mass. On special feast days and occasions solos will be sung by a few selected choiristers.—John T. Anton.

ORCHESTRA MAKES RAPID PROGRESS

During the past week Joseph Ciccarella was appointed librarian. This addition to the number of librarians was necessary because of the great number of players.

Some of the vacancies on a few of the instruments are being filled. Robert Wahl has decided to play the flute. James Beck is practicing on the baritone and Augustine Moorman is studying on the mellaphone.

It is the purpose of the director this year to devote more time to the standard pieces of Musical Literature. The recent addition to the orchestra library includes:

"Bohemian Girl" of Balfe; "Wedding of the Winds," Hall; "Whispering Flowers," von Blon; "Love's Dream After the Ball," Czibrika; and the more difficult composition consisting of Tschakowsky's "Valse de Fleurs," Wagner's Chorus from Lohengrin, and selections from Verdi's well-known and famous Grand Opera "Aida."—John T. Anton.

DEBATING

THE ROAD TO SALESMANSHIP

Have you ever tried to express an opinion and have not had the words wherewith to express it? Have you ever failed when confronted with a problem that demanded quick thinking and quick speech? Have you ever lacked the confidence to say what you thought? If you have you will find the remedy in debating.

Salesmanship requires quite a bit of debating. The salesman debates with almost every prospective customer, though the debate may be entirely one-sided. Indeed, we have all frequently heard that some salesmanship is employed in every business, and in every profession. So, you shrinking violets and would-be professional and business men will benefit from the experience received in the debating club. Join now.—Joseph Dressman.

SOLID GEOMETRY CLASS FORMED

The class in solid geometry was formed last Monday, October 4, at half past two. Although only thirteen students were there that day, the number during the first week has increased until there are now twenty-three students in the class. Two are from the college and the rest are members of the Junior and Senior classes.

The teacher, Mr. Jos. Kowalewski, outlined the way in which the subject would be studied, saying that most of the work could be done in the classes and promising that very little written home-work would be assigned. He also stated that if possible he would include in the course a little higher mathematics, probably calculus. It was at first decided to have the class in the afternoon, but for various reasons the time was changed to 8:15 in the morning. Although text books were scarce during the first week, no time was lost in getting started. And, strange to say, none of the would-be engineers or of those taking the course for the sake of extra credit have yet decided that the subject is too difficult for them.—Bob Dapper.

OFFICERS APPOINTED

The High School Orchestra for the year coming promises to come up to the expectations of all as Joseph Von Hoene has been elected student business manager. The literature of the orchestra is in charge of the three librarians, Robert Hory, John Kemme, and Howard Bens. The orchestra is not yet fully organized and all those who know anything at all concerning the playing of a musical instrument please report to Mr. Bernard J. Wuelner, S. J., the director. All, even the most inexperienced of beginners will be given a trial.

JUNIORS SPEAK ON PAPER

The students in the Junior elocution classes of Mr. Edward K. Roth, A. B., presented to their respective classes five minute speeches which they had composed.

Many topics of local interest were the subjects of the speakers, but the subject which seemed to hold their attention was that of a high school paper.

Edward Brueggemann, Robert Sack, James Crowley, Paul Fredwest, Philip Overbeck, Leonard Jacob, Francis Herzog, Bernard Menkhaus, Joseph Toohey and John Anton were the advocates for a paper. Their contentions were:

1. The present space in the Xavierian News is inadequate to the number of the students.
2. A paper is something which is local and of an interest to everybody.
3. The talent in St. Xavier High is good enough to insure a success along literary lines.
4. A high school paper would form an incentive to get students outside of the editorial staff to contribute.
5. The various professors have stated that we are able to publish a periodical.
6. A high school paper will be a means of advertisement for St. Xavier.

In criticizing the talks we would state that according to the facts submitted the composers studied and knew their subjects thoroughly, and delivered them forcefully and convincingly.—John T. Anton.

COMMUNICANTS' MASS

Rev. John A. Weiland, S. J., prefect of studies, has announced that in addition to the regular student Mass at 9 o'clock there will be another Mass on Thursday morning only at 8:15 a. m., at which Holy Communion will be distributed. This Mass will be read to encourage those who wish to go to Communion oftener than once a week on Sunday. Breakfast will be served regularly every Thursday morning in the cafeteria after the early Mass.

WATCH SHEVLIN!

It gives us great pleasure to call attention to the fact that our erstwhile baseball and basketball captain, Jimmy Shevlin, has been elected captain of the Holy Cross freshman baseball team. It is our prediction that Jimmy will make a name for himself at the Eastern college. Under the tutelage of Jack Barry, Holy Cross coach, he is liable to join the ranks of big league players graduated from that institution. Among the Holy Cross alumni who have joined fast company are Walter Gautreau, Rosy Ryan, Ownie Carroll, Young Coterie, and McEntee. Incidentally, Saint Xavier High School has given several men to major league baseball.—Joe Dressman.

ANNUAL

A meeting of all fourth year students was held during the third period on Thursday, October 14. The purpose of the meeting was to determine the students' attitude on the proposed annual. Mr. Edward L. Colnon, S. J., acted as chairman of the meeting, and order reigned throughout. Several students spoke. Ed. Haulker has written letters to various schools, asking for the cost of their annuals. Charles Walters, Joseph Zeigler and Lee Worthheimer contributed information about the probable cost. Mr. Colnon also gave the benefit of his experiences in putting out an annual. Altogether the meeting helped to bring the coveted annual closer, but it is agreed that it is too early to begin definite preparations. A committee of four, consisting of Art Linz, 4A; Bob Brand, 4B; Joe Zeigler, 4C, and Joe Dressman, 4D, was appointed to find definitely the actual cost of editing a high school annual. At the next meeting two weeks from the first, this information will be laid before the school. Ways and means of financing the annual will be considered at that time.—Dan O'Brien.

CHINESE WALL PAPER

Rev. Raymond B. Walsh, S. J., and Rev. Bernard A. Horn, S. J., sodality directors, have revived a custom which was much in vogue at St. Xavier's in former years, when students were more zealous in their work for foreign missions. This custom is the saving of stamps. Old stamps are assorted and arranged in small packets in return for which the Chinese coolies contribute to missionaries their useless babies. Then, too, many stamps that are prized by Philatelists, or stamp collectors, sometimes fall into the hands of those who collect for the Catholic Students Mission Crusades. Fathers Horn and Walsh wish that all who can would bring in their stamps and do their bit toward saving the heathen Chinese.

THE THRILL OF FOOTBALL

In each school year there are three things that carry a real punch with them—the noon recess, vacation, and the football season. The last mentioned is, of course, the pre-eminent one and the biggest thrill-getter. Gosh! Who is there who does not freeze with fear and tremble with awful suspense in the heat of the game? Who doesn't thunder at his team, and try to get that ball across with sheer noise? Who doesn't become a roaring, yelping, booing, bounding member of that loyal crowd in the rocking stadium (concrete) and help win the game as surely as if he were a member of the team? To have the real school spirit and to back up the team by being at every game to root for your home crowd is to feel the real thrill of football.—L. A. Feldhaus.

Decisions of Student Council

At the last meeting of the student council, held on October 12, the resolution forcing all students, especially Freshmen, to attend all student assemblies under pain of severe penalty, was unanimously adopted. The resolution, to offer the student mass and rosary of October 18 for the full recovery of Frank Swann, '29 was also passed.

Officers Elected By the Freshmen

President Addressed Student Body Oct. 13

Rev. Hubert F. Brockman, S. J., president of the college, spoke before the students of the liberal arts college on Wednesday, October 13. His topic was Christopher Columbus.

"Columbus," he said, "should be our example, in his greatness of soul; a man is great, not so much for his deeds as for his will. After all, a man's talents are gifts, whereas his soul or will or character, whatever you will, is within his own power of developing. Therefore, Christopher Columbus should be one of our heroes not because of his deeds, but because of the spirit in which those deeds were accomplished."

Apt Question Discussed At Philopedian

The debate, Resolved: That Fraternities Be Recognized at St. Xavier College, held at the meeting of the Philopedian Society, on October 11, was a very interesting one. Messrs. Walter Ryan and Morse Conroy put up excellent arguments for the Affirmative, while the Negative was well supported by Messrs. Frank Marchildon and Robert Smith.

The Critic, Mr. William Clines, decided Morse Conroy the best speaker of the day, but the Judges, Messrs. Joseph Neiner, Frank Glueck, and Robert Clark could come to no decision regarding the winning side. As one draw vote was cast and one for each of the teams debating, the vote was put to the house. The Negative won the consensus of opinion.

After the debate a spirited discussion took place among the members of the society on the advisability of having fraternities at St. Xavier. Following the remarks of the moderator, Father Walsh, the meeting was adjourned.

The list of debates and debaters until January 10, is now published and all future debates are expected to be of the best, since ample time for preparation is provided.
